(EDITOR'S NOTE: As this entire issue of Sun SPOTS was put together in 10 days, there was not time to call on all the SMCC friends about advertising space. January 1, 1967 issue is going to press soon and we would love to include your firm. Just call the club FI 6-6123 and we will buzz right over with information . . . only a limited amount of space still available.)

ANYONE FOR YOGA? — Breath, now relax, says lovely Jean Farrar and "by breathing correctly you can build a new and more constructive pattern of life" . . . want to try it? . . . you're in luck, for Jean will present "Slim, Trim, and Yoga" each Wednesday and Friday at 9:30 a.m. here at SMCC . . . 6 weeks course for a tab of 25 bucks . . . children's classes on Saturdays for $15 for the course.

SHADOW MOUNTAIN GOLF CLUB

TEE OFF TIME

By Charles Rowe

Shadow Mountain Golf Club opened the season on November 10 with a swinging party . . . which included good food, good music, and good fellowship. Old members welcomed our newest members and everyone had fun.

Next Golf Club party will be held December 15 . . . make your reservations NOW!

WALGREN TROPHY PLAY started November 19 and all matches must be completed by December 19.

JANUARY 10 is the starting date for the Henderson Trophy.

ANGEL VIEW CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL GOLF TOURNAMENT, a benefit, will be played December 10.

FRED SIMA is now Entertainment Chairman and with his bride Jo to help him, this should be a terrific year.

SHADOW MOUNTAIN GOLF CLUB

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

CHAIRMAN ALEXIS NEWBRANDER reports that the Helen Sumpter Memorial Trophy will be held Wednesday, December 7 with luncheon following.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 14, Helen Sumpter Memorial tourney will be completed with luncheon following.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 18 TWILIGHTERS, with cocktails and dinner, presentation of trophies.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21, MATCH VERSUS PAR.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 28, FOURBALL BESTBALL FOURSOME.

DATES TO REMEMBER: — GUEST DAY January 4, INVITATIONAL March 1.

FROM THE PRO SHOP — Come and see the lush new lines of Rosenblums, Diva, Horgans and other exciting lines of goodies in our newly stocked clothes line and have our genial Pro Moon Mullins help you out the door with your packages as he does here for Mrs. Charles Larabee and Mrs. Harrold B. Jensen.

AT SCOTT-SHELTON WEDDING — Of much interest to Palm Desert friends of two local families, the Cliff Hendersons and the Charles Sheltons (he is President of the Palm Desert Post) was the marriage of their children, Ann Shelton and Al Scott, son of Mrs. Clifford Henderson. The young couple was married Nov. 10 at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Palm Desert and was assisted by Best man, Rob Ruedi and Maid of Honor Ann Lynn . . . as if this wasn't enough excitement in the Shelton family, their other daughter Kathy Fullerton gave birth the same week, November 18 to a baby girl . . . the baby's father Gaylord Fullerton arrived back from a business trip in New York just in time to greet the little doll . . . Probably will give her stock for an arrival present as he is now with Walston and Company in San Diego where the family will soon reside.

PEPSI SET

WITH

JANE PELGRAM

Football is out, and Christmas is in . . . that time when the teenagers among our Sun-Spotters don their wiggiest clothes for party time. The Shadow Mountain Club Misses Linda Satterfield, Janice Foote, Carol Nilson, Marky Berry, Nancy McDougall, Diane Hartley and Karen Petrie are helping social director Judy Robinson plan a gala for the over-twelves, designed to push those Indio, Palm Desert, Palm Springs junior high and high school rivalries right off the scene by the beat from the local pop rock station dance records!

Our "junior" junior group (Mark Valley, Mike and Jackson Burcham, a youngster named Pelgram, Mike Fletcher, Mike Duffy, who still find tennis zokier than the Monkees, Stones or Beach Boys, have some special off-court activities coming up, too, reminiscent of all the other years and good parties that Santa and the SMCC joined forces to hold. Pets On Parade will headline this fun, so watch your Sun Spots bulletins and get Fido up in his best vinyl, Puss in his best boots for the big show.

And don't forget the first Saturday of each month when all you under-twelves . . . or just twelves . . . gather at 2:00 p.m. at your club to salute those fellow partiers whose birthdays do fall in that month. Only entre is a wrapped, twenty-five cent gift for the exchange bag that means everyone goes home with a present!

Want to breathe like a Los Angeles Angel? Jean Farrar, who taught 'em. brings her yoga and physical education training to the Club . . . sessions are one fifty an hour, or fifteen dollars for six weeks, and you better be under sixteen, at least in spirit.

If tennis is your game, Magda Rurac's four o'clock tennis clinics — and what they are doing for the youngsters — are still going strong on Friday afternoons. These are open to your friends, too, you know, whether it's just a good game they want to learn, or shaping up for that Davis Cup, '76! It's once a week, lots of instruction, not much money, and the post-clinic games are turning up some amazingly good tennis. Mark Valley may not wait until high school to equal his brothers's Coachella Valley championship!

If you have any ideas for a groovey party, you've got your friends at the Shadow Mt. Club to help, so why not start a pictures club, candid camera style, for your Sun Spots? Or have a way-out treasure map party? Just let your junior editors (Linda, Janice, Markey et al) in on plans or activities whether in your Shadow Mountain Club or outside, and we'll see you next month with a full report and new plans for the first of the year fun. In the meantime . . .

MERRY CHRISTMAS

and if any electric guitars, chord organs, drum sets or just plain harmonicas show up in your Christmas bags, busy up and try for the knacky new Saturday afternoon amateur bashes planned for beginners here at SMCC.

Pre-teen set enjoy the club pool while their parents, Hotel del Coronado Beach and Tennis Club members meet in week-end inter-club matches with our local stars . . . those smiles belong to Tani Cohen, Caroline Haines, Polly Harris, Pam and Bunny Haines, left to right.
